Frequently Asked Questions

The Board of Zoning Appeals may only approve a variance when the following conditions exist, according to the Code of Virginia (1950, as amended) Section 15.2-2309:

1. That the subject property was acquired in good faith.
2. That the strict application of the Ordinance would produce undue hardship.
3. That such hardship is not shared generally by other properties in the same zoning district and the same vicinity.
4. That authorization of such variance will not be of substantial detriment to adjacent property.
5. That the character of the district will not be changed by the granting of the variance.
6. That the condition or situation of the subject property concerned is not of so general or recurring a nature as to make reasonably practicable the formulation of a general regulation to be adopted as an amendment to the Ordinance.
7. That the variance is not of such a scope as to amount to a rezoning of the property.
8. That the variance will be in harmony with the intended spirit and purpose of this Ordinance and will not be contrary to public interest.

Typical Timeline

Step 1. Meet with town staff to discuss your proposed project. Staff members can assist you with the application and answer any questions you may have about the rezoning process.

Step 2. Applications are always due by the fourth Tuesday of the month prior to the meeting. A non-refundable application fee of $100 is due upon submittal ($125 if a special meeting is called).

Step 3. Your application is reviewed by town staff for completeness. Applicants are notified if there are any deficiencies.

Step 4. Complete applications are advertised for public hearing. Fees for advertising must be paid by the applicant prior to scheduling the public hearing.

Step 5. The Board of Zoning Appeals meeting is held on the 4th Tuesday of every month, pending agenda items.

Step 6. Appeal of decisions of the Board of Zoning Appeals must be received by the Circuit Court of Washington County, Virginia within thirty (30) days of the decision of the BZA.
