Mrs. White stated that even though it is beyond repair, the demolition of any building in the Historic District is not taken lightly. This is a perfect example of demolition by neglect; it has been neglected and now has to be removed. She also stated that the mitigating factor is that this particular structure was built post 1949, so it is not one of the oldest structures on Plumb Alley.

Mr. Mark Goodman is in the process of moving his jewelry store to 108 East Main Street. He would like to have lighting all the way around the house for safety, since it is a jewelry store. They would like to put lights under the top brick of the retaining wall so it will shine onto the gravel walkway at a 45 degree angle. They estimate needing 5 - 7 lights. The steps are already lit in this same fashion.

He would also like to put lighting along the 16 foot walkway from the Town sidewalk up to the porch. They will be low intensity LED lights. Mrs. White read the lighting guidelines which state that lighting must be hidden from view.

After much discussion, three options were given to light the walkway. One would be to insert a post light in the yard, with reflectors to direct the light. Another would be to use staff star down lighting on the far left, hidden with shrubbery and one at the porch, also hidden. A last option would be to install recessed mini drive star lighting in the ground.

It was suggested to make sure that all light colors match the color of lighting as is on his sign as well as possible.

Other Discussion: Councilperson Duehring noted that if the board really wants to preserve outbuildings in the district, they should have something in place that will unobtrusively stop demolition by neglect from happening.

Mr. Neese suggested taking an inventory of all the accessory buildings in the district.
