Frequently Asked Questions

What is a rezoning? A rezoning is required if the proposed use of your property is not permitted by right or with a Special Exception Permit.

What is the process? Applicants submit an application for rezoning to the Planning Department are due by the first Monday of the month in order to be on that months Planning Commission agenda. The staff needs to have sufficient time to review site plans & post public notices per VA code section §15.2- 2204. Applications are then considered at a public hearing before the Planning Commission which makes a recommendation for consideration by the Town Council.

How long does the process take? The process typically takes 3 to 4 months to complete from beginning to end. This time frame can vary if an application requires additional time for review by the Planning Commission or Town Council.

What happens during a public Hearing? All rezoning applications require two public hearings, one by the Planning Commission and one by the Town Council. Costs for public hearing advertisements to be paid by the applicant. The Code of Virginia requires that a notice of public hearing be placed in the newspaper. All abutting property owners to your property will receive a notice of the date, time and nature of the public hearing and are invited to attend to make public comments.

What can I expect during the meetings? At the time of your public hearing, the meeting chairperson will introduce the item by reading the case summary from the meeting agenda. The Chair will then ask town staff to provide a summary of the application. The applicant and those attendees in support and opposed to the project are then invited to speak.

Why is it important for the applicant to attend both public hearings? During the public hearing, you (or your
