(3) Discussion: Curbside mailboxes.

A discussion took place about the issue of curbside boxes. It was brought up that the U.S. Postal Service cannot actually require residents to have their mailbox at the curb, and when pushed to back down from this requirement by other communities, they have yielded. The consensus of the Board was to stand firm against any such policy from the Post Office because curbside mailboxes, in general, would be inappropriate for the historic district.
